

Appendix C: List of special pathways, options, certificates, etc., within degrees

At the undergraduate level, we have two degrees (Computer Science and Computer Engineering), and our Computer Engineering degree has two flexible “options”: “hardware” and “embedded system software.”

At the graduate level, our traditional full-time Masters program and our part-time evening/distance Professional Masters Program are distinct offerings under the same degree title/authorization.